School Uniform Clothing Bank Update

The calendar says the first day of summer everyone is busy planning back yard cookouts, picnics, vacation at the lake, or a trip to the beach. At the School Uniform Clothing Bank (SUCB) at Pearl Street UMC, our thoughts for weeks have been on how to restock the uniform bank to be ready for requests by the middle of August so students will have uniforms for the first day of school.

The 2009–10 back to school was a little rough getting started with a waiting list of over 300 students in only the second week of school. But thanks to LUMINA and help from some friends at the local newspaper for getting the word out about the need—the requests were filled promptly. A BIG THANK YOU for all the help from Sunday school classes, UMW groups, Special Sunday offerings, Community groups, Girls Scout Troops, Auntie Anne’s C.A.R.E.S. Committee and many other individuals in the community the SUCB served over 1,100 students.

The requests come throughout the school year new students arrive in the school district as late as May or a request to help a family who had a house fire, children grow, and seasons change. The need for new and clean, gently used items and monetary donations continues during the year.

A special Thank You to volunteer coordinator: Anne Brinser, who is very dedicated and a big help at stretching every dollar donated by shopping for gently used items and online for close-outs and other great bargains. Thank you to all who help in any way with the (SUCB) – enjoy your summer and keep the (SUCB) and volunteers in your payers as we get ready to do what we can to help the students of the School District of Lancaster so they may have a successful year of school.

Children's SUMMER Ministries at a Glance

Executive Director's note: We recently realized that some of our parents were a bit overwhelmed by all of the opportunities included in our CHILDREN'S SUMMER MINISTRIES for 2010. As a visual aid we have provided a brochure including the following information. Our Executive Committee was amazed and we thought you might be, too! Have a SUPER summer! —Sally Ott
